The Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung (FES) began its operations in 1925 following the dissolution of the Friedrich-Ebert Foundation in 1923. The foundation has been active in Myanmar since 2014, following the dissolution of DGB in 2009. The FES Foundation is committed to promoting democracy and social justice in the country.

----

The Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung (FES) began its operations in 1925 following the dissolution of the Friedrich-Ebert Foundation in 1923. The foundation has been active in Myanmar since 2014, following the dissolution of DGB in 2009. The FES Foundation is committed to promoting democracy and social justice in the country.
The Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung (FES) is the oldest political foundation in Germany with a rich tradition in social democracy dating back to its foundation in 1925. The foundation owes its formation and its mission to the political legacy of its namesake Friedrich Ebert, the first democratically elected German President. For decades, the FES has acted as a partner to German foreign and developmental policy through its network of over 100 FES countries and regional offices all around the globe. Here, our top priority has always been on the promotion of social justice, democracy, peace and security. Worldwide, we aim to strengthen the forces of democracy, including the next generation of young politicians. An essential task of our international work is the support of independent unions. Without them, a social-ecological transformation and a just, sustainable and democratic economic system cannot be put into practice. In the course of this, we represent the interests of German Trade Union Confederation (DGB) and its member unions abroad.

In the Republic of the Union of Myanmar, the Friedrich-Ebert-Stiftung (FES) has been conducting activities since 2005. In 2014, a country office in Yangon has been established. We promote inclusive and participatory reform process, socially just society and enhance peace and cooperation as core principles of foreign policy. As a non-governmental, private and educational institution, we support activities of our Myanmar partners of all regional, cultural and social origins and cooperate with governmental institutions as well as with trade unions, research institutions and civil society organizations. Together with other partners from FES Asia, the FES Myanmar Office seeks to understand the trends of globalisation, labour mobility and regional integration and work together on a socially just and sustainable development in the region.